Proposed millage increase lower than expected

The Governing Board of the South Florida Water Management District has given tentative approval to a lower than expected increase in the millage rate while still providing nearly $22 million for Everglades restoration, according to a recently released report from the District.

The decision to lower the proposed millage rate from 1/10 to 1/20 of a mill came at a public hearing September 8 on the proposed FISCAL YEAR '94 budget of $259 million. Under the new tentative millage rate of .597 mills, the average homeowner would pay an additional $5 in ad valorem taxes. Previously, the Board had considered a millage rate of .647 mills which would have meant a $10 increase to the average property owner.

District Executive Director, Tilford C. Creel said, "Although I recommended a higher millage increase over the summer, I also instructed staff to do everything possible to reduce the need for an increase, yet still provide the required $21.5 million for Everglades restoration. I do want to reassure taxpayers that a dedicated fund will be established to ensure that the tax increase will only be used for Everglades restoration requirements."

The Governing Board also approved lower pay increases for the District's 1,517 employees. Average pay raises will total 3.5 percent instead of the proposed 4.3 percent.

Final Governing Board adoption of the tentative millage rate and budget will come at a 5:15 p.m. public hearing on September 21.

Political newcomer ousts mayor by 23 votes

By Brenda Bunting
SUN Editor

Voters turned aside 24 years of political experience to elect a political newcomer in Tuesday's city commission race.

Rodney Clay Connell, 31, a furniture store manager, beat out Mayor Bill Bailey by less than one percent of the vote.

Connell said he was not surprised to win and predicted his victory early in the campaign. "I'm not surprised. I was very confident," he said.

Mr. Bailey lost the election by 23 votes, with Mr. Connell taking 519 votes to his 796.

Mr. Bailey, who has served on the county commission as well as the city commission, said he thought he was doing well in the race on Tuesday morning, but as the day progressed and he talked to people exiting the polls, he began to feel differently. "The people have spoken," he said.

In the race between Commissioner J. Stephen Weeks and Tammy Gilbert, Weeks trounced Gilbert by 616 votes.

Mr. Weeks will be serving his third term. Crate "Happy" Tucker also beat his opponent, Johnny Johnson by 220 votes. Mr. Tucker will be going into his fourth term on the commission.

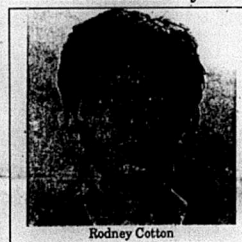

City Clerk June Boglioli said forty-two percent of the 4,389 registered voters, turned out for Tuesday's election, despite intermittent rain during the day.

Three Clewiston men arrested in farm thefts

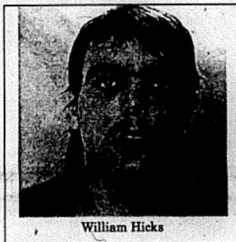

Sheriff's officials say the investigation was a cooperative effort of detectives in four counties

SUN Editor

Sheriff's deputies have arrested three men who they say are behind the theft of thousands of dollars of farm chemicals and tools in remote areas of Palm Beach, Martin, Glades, Hendry and Collier counties. Now they want to find the people who bought the stolen goods.

Deputies say it was teamwork that helped them catch three Clewiston men who are charged with burglary, trespass and grand theft.

Charged are cousins Rodney and David Cotton, both 23 and William Hicks, also 23. The trio are accused of stealing batteries, hand tools, power tools, welders, battery chargers, pumps and herbicides from remote farms. Officers say the men also damaged barns, shops, storage sheds and gates by ramming them with the farmer's own equipment to gain entry.

The dollar value in theft and damages is estimated at $100,000.

"We had a problem, a major problem," said Det. Steve Haller with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office. "These people were organized."

Detectives began learning of the thefts about the first of July.

"We started talking to other county agencies and found we had a pattern—the same truck prints, same footprints," Det. Haller said.

"We spent a tremendous amount of man hours and we got real close a couple of times," he said. "We have slowed down a crime wave."

On September 5 at about 2 a.m., Martin County detectives and deputies responded to a farm shop burglary in western Martin County. Information from witnesses matched a description of a previously suspected vehicle. Martin County officials called the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office in Belle Glade and alerted them.

A truck fitting the description was stopped near South Bay September 7 and in the truck were tools stolen from Martin County. A 1980 Chevy truck along with approximately $5,000 worth of tools and pumps were recovered. They were booked into the Belle Glade jail on $50,000 bond for warrants in Martin County.

During questioning the men confessed to stealing other items, including ATVs, ATVs, tools and chemicals. The items, totaling $25,000 in value, were recovered, and local farmers were notified last week to come by and pick up their stuff.

"Hendry County didn't get hit as hard," said Det. Haller. "Although they operated in a 70 mile radius, these young men weren't stealing out of their own back yard." None of the three suspects have any significant previous arrest histories, according to Det.

Haller. Det. Haller said the men told detectives they would scout the areas they wanted to hit during the daytime and then hire a driver to take them to the site and pick them up after hours. They used the farmer's equipment to break down fences, gain access to buildings and haul the items to the road.

He said one of the suspected drivers will be arrested this week.

The arrests have cleared 12 cases in Martin County, seven in Glades County. Palm Beach County Sheriff's officials made the arrests and the men were transported to Martin County. Charges are still pending in Palm Beach County.

Sgt. John Russ with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office said the arrests will clear up five or six cases locally.

In addition to the cooperative effort between Glades, Hendry, Martin and Palm Beach County, Det. Russ said U.S. Sugar Corporation's security personnel were very helpful in the case.

Two almost new ATVs were returned to Mayaca Land Company near Port Mayaca and Talisman Sugar retrieved six, thirty gal drums of the herbicide Asulox. The Asulox was valued at $30 a gallon. Roth Farm's Manager Gene Smith, recovered several cases of chemicals stolen from the farm located about 13 miles east of Belle Glade.

"We were very relieved and surprised they were arrested," he said. "We've been robbed several times. We felt victimized," he added.

Pahokee continues to debate city's budget

By David Ranieri
Staff Reporter

The proposed 1993-1994 fiscal budget and unsightly garbage containers were two issues citizens brought to the attention of Pahokee Commissioners Tuesday night.

Residents also wanted know how their tax dollars would be spent.

"I hope you take a real close look at the budget," said Lynda Moss. "We've gotten to a point where we've as high as we can go."

Mrs. Moss also mentioned she was upset with community apathy concerning the budget because only seven people were in attendance Tuesday night.

Commissioner John Norman reminded Mrs. Moss: this is the first time in seven years the city has proposed a tax increase.

The proposed 1993-1994 budget and millage rate have not been finalized. City officials will hold their final budget hearing on September 28 at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

One resident also mentioned a problem with unsightly trash containers being left out by the road. Lewis Friend said many area businesses and home owners leave containers by the road all week.

"The garbage pails are hideous looking," Friend said. Mayor Ramon Horta assured Mr. Friend the containers were never intended to stay by the street for a week and he mentioned that at a previous commission meeting he said the city should consider fining residents, but that action was never taken. City Manager Ken Schenck told Mr. Friend the city has an ordinance concerning the trash containers, but it has never been enforced.

The city commission will continue to look into the problem and take action if the situation continues.

The Episcopal Church Of St. John The Apostle

Emission testing takes too long

Once again I have three vehicles to be emission tested this month, which if they pass will take a minimum of two-and-a-half to three hours for each vehicle. It looks like you'd explain just why commercial vehicles are allowed to register vehicles in other counties, such as Orange County, and then send these vehicles to Palm Beach County. Either these counties are not as environmentally aware as they would like us to believe. Thank you.

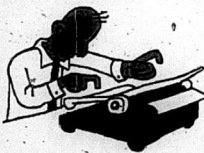

Editor's note: You could direct your question to Manager Peter Stubenvoll with Systems Control, the company who handles the service for Palm Beach County, by calling 407-840-3100. Thank you for Speaking Out.

FCC does us wrong

The FCC has really given us cable subscribers the shaft. Our local cable has just taken our last Miami-station, Channel 10, away from us. Now, in my recent bill, as of October the 6th they will take away our channels 5, 12 and 29, our West Palm Beach channels. We can't get any local news, no soap operas, no local sports. What can we do about it? Something should be done and I'd appreciate some help on this. Thank you.

Editor's note: I spoke with Doug Kelly, General Manager for CVI in Belle Glade. He said it is not absolute that the channels this caller are referring to will be deleted. "We are working with these stations to gain their permission to continue to run their channels," he said. Some of the stations are wanting monetary compensation to run their channels. CVI is negotiating to offer other incentives.

Mail runs late

This is a question for the head postmaster: Why is it that half of Belle Glade doesn't get their mail until after 4 p.m. when around town everything is closing? It's bad enough to wait that long to get your mail, especially when you're waiting on your income to come, then to find out it went to the wrong mailbox. I want to say thank God for the honest person who brought my check to me. Signed, Light's off

Editor's note: We addressed this same issue several months ago in Speak Out. Postmaster Johnny Johnson explained at that time that mail delivery is usually finished by 6 p.m. every evening. Because of the routing, not everyone can get their mail in the morning hours. Misdirecting important mail is another matter. You may want to speak personally to your mail carrier or to Mr. Johnson by calling him at 996-3145.

Signs of violence

I have no vested interest in either Glades Day or Christian Day School. But this past weekend I grew tired of seeing "Kill, Kill" and "Death to CD" still on vehicle's windows about town. School spirit is one thing, suggesting violence, which we already have too much of, is another. Clean up your act.

Integration is the problem

Hey! No wonder the kids in school today don't learn anything. They're too busy fighting amongst each other. I'll tell you how you can find out where all the trouble starts, and who causes most of the problems. Stop integrating the schools and you'll see which schools have the biggest problem.

Dannette, with her mother, Mary

Editor's note: The following letter was written by Dorothy Sweeney in memory of her granddaughter, Dannette Lynn Sulzer, who died August 9 of this year of AIDS.

She was the wind beneath her mother's wings

To whom it may concern:
I'm writing this letter in memory of my granddaughter who died with AIDS.

All the time she was alive she wished they could have found a cure for this terrible disease that finally killed her. She was 27 years old and left two children, ages eight and five. Her loving mother, Mary, took care of her until she died in her arms. I'm her grandmother. I watched her dying every day from the drugs and AIDS. It was a terrible death.

Please, if any of the young children out there read this letter, please understand the sorrow and heartache it has caused this family and realize what drugs can do to you. Thank you for reading this letter.

With all my love from her grandmother, known as Nanny, who loved her more than anything in this world.

Dorothy Sweeney

P.S. Her mother's name is Mary and her children's names are Missy and Michael Sulzer.

Here are the details of what she went through before this terrible thing took her life away.

She lost her hair. She lost her mind. She didn't even know her own mother or children. Lost the use of her legs and arms and was helpless in her whole body. Then she died. I loved her.

With love,
Her Nanny

An open letter to a parent...

from U.S. Secretary of Education Richard W. Riley

As your children head back to school and you count up the cost of new sneakers, jeans and book bags, you may be wondering if there is anything more you can do to get your children ready for the school year ahead. You're exhausted from the shopping, a little tired of the summer and deep down you're looking forward to school starting again. Anything else?

Well, yes. I talk to parents all across the country and find that most of you are worried, frustrated and sometimes just barely coping. The question I am always asked is, "How do I know whether my child is learning what he or she needs to learn?" It's a question full of anxiety and doubt about the real fear that your children may not be getting the "leg up" in life they will need to get ahead. I hear you.

For me, the essence of education comes down to values, standards, performance, and maybe - what to do about television. So how do we reinvent education? Setting challenging national education standards is important and we'll get that done. It is also important to raise the quality of teaching and get a fix on how we can help the majority of kids who don't go directly to a four-year college to "jump start" their careers. We'll make progress on those, too. But, ultimately, the improvement of our children's education is also a willingness to slow down the pace of our lives to help our children grow. Education starts with values. Most of us who have made a go of it in life have gotten ahead because we had a Mom, a Dad, a grandparent or a guardian who let us know where they stood about our sticking to our studies. Here, it is important to point out what may not be so obvious - these values can be stressed to children by anybody. A parent doesn't need a Ph.D. to make learning a priority in the home. If you haven't made it in life quite the way you expected, you can still make sure that your child does. A good education can do that. All those stories about children from rough or poor neighborhoods who succeed because a parent insisted that they crack the books make a convincing and telling point - drive, determination and focus still come from the family.

Some folks say that setting high standards is unfair. I don't - if the students, teachers and parents work together to reach the higher standard. Children who get smart, get smart because they study and take tough courses to meet high standards. If you get beyond the ditto sheets to helping children read novels, create stories, tackle real-life math problems and get into the excitement of science, they will learn more and score higher on tougher tests. It doesn't really matter whether they come from high-income backgrounds. Setting standards, then, means encouraging your child to take the tougher course, the tougher teacher. Be careful not to "dumb down" your own child...and don't let the school system do it either.

Here is my best advice - if a parent or parents will spend one hour with their children each night on their schoolwork this coming year, we will transform this nation.

Finally, a word about that friendly monster, television. Children love "Barney" and that's great. And "Beavis and Butthead" is here to stay - of that I am sure. But wouldn't it be refreshing if parents got some help from television producers and executives? Some rule of proportion about violence and a willingness to ask a basic gut question: "Is this good for kids or will this just sell the product?"

In the end, I suspect, you'll be on your own when it comes to TV. The same little remote control button that can turn "on" your TV can also turn it "off." Try it, then sit back. You may not always win the battle for the remote control but that may be where you have to start to make the process of learning important again.

Getting our kids back to school ultimately is more than a shopping trip for your or for me. It's a commitment to the possibility that our children can really have better lives if we all make the effort...together and now.

Happy relations

Dear Readers:

This week I thought that it would be important for me to follow some of my own advice. Generally I advocate that people should focus more on enjoying or creating positive events in their lives. To this end, I would like to discuss what it takes to maintain a happy, loving relationship.

Whatever initially attracts you to your partner is not so important. Love, beauty, money, a need for security, or a shot gun (wedding) do not predict nor preclude a happy life together. Cross-cultural studies in fact, show that in arranged marriages in Japan, the couples are more satisfied with each other, than couples in America who freely select who they want to marry! One way to explain this, is that in arranged marriages, each partner expects to take time and effort to get to know their partner and to learn how to get along. When the chips are down, they try to improve the situation, instead of getting mad at the other person for not making them happy.

When a relationship works, people respect, trust, and enjoy each other. Your partner is not going to be perfect, or meet all your emotional needs. A good relationship is not analogous to "two halves making a whole." Rather it is better described as "two individuals supporting each other in a partnership." It involves a willingness for each individual to share and support each other in their vulnerability, and not to demand instant gratification of personal needs.

A sense of humor, and a willingness to compromise are requisite. I have interviewed numerous couples in their eighties who have been married over fifty years. I asked them what they believed it took to maintain a long, happy marriage. One gentleman summed it up best when he said "fifty-five years ago my wife and I agreed that she would take care of all the little decisions that needed to be made, and I would handle all the big decisions in our marriage. Well to and behold, after all this time two found out that there were never any big decisions to be made!"

Homeowner shoots burglar

A 33-year old male was in critical condition at St. Mary's Hospital Wednesday morning after he broke into a house and was shot by the homeowner.

Jan Berry Jefferson of 746 Waddell Lane entered through a living room window at the side of Dalton Fraser's home.

Then Jefferson disconnected a stereo and was turning the knob on a locked door around 2:30 a.m. when he woke Fraser of 297 Annona Avenue, who was asleep with his wife. Fraser confronted Jefferson and Jefferson responded by attacking him. Fraser fired three shots, hitting Jefferson twice in the torso.

Jefferson was taken to Everglades Regional Medical Center and then flown to St. Mary's.

Charges are still pending.

In Memory of Mr. Spooner

On Saturday, Sept. 11, 1993 a dear neighbor fell asleep in death. Beside him was his loving and devoted wife of many years, his loving family and friends. We are his neighbors and we want them to know Mr. Spooner will be sadly missed.

We enjoyed gifts from his garden, fruit from his trees. We surely will miss him on his lawn mower or just passing by and seeing him out. With deepest sympathy to his wife, family and friends.

Sincerely

The Neighbors on Annona Ave.

Glades Day Gators buries Christian Day Crusaders 48-0

By David Ranieri
Staff Reporter

Area bragging rites were on the line as Christian Day squared off against Glades Day last Friday night.

"This is an important game for us," said Gator head coach Many Perez. "Guys play with a little more adrenaline. We are playing for the pride of Belle Glade."

Gator quarterback Graham Chaney agreed. "This year's game is a matter of pride."

The series between the two teams was tied at 1-1 coming into Friday night. Glades Day defeated Christian Day 40-23 last year.

The Crusaders were hoping to pull off the upset on the Gator's home turf.

But Patrick Whitehead and his Glades Day teammates shattered any hopes of a Christian Day upset.

The 6-2, 225 junior running back rushed for 179 yards on 14 carries and a career high four touchdowns.

Whitehead opened the scoring for the Gators with 34-yard run to cap a 67-yard drive with 4:43 remaining in the first half. Chaney connected on the extra point to give the Gators an early 7-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, Glades Day recovered a fumble on Christian Day's 20-yard line and the Gator's offense would take advantage of the opportunity.

Chaney connected on a 14-yard pass to sophomore tight end Brad Seider. The senior quarterback was 5-for-10 passing for 105 yards and one touchdown.

The Gator's offense widened their lead in the second quarter as they exploded for 21 unanswered points.

Glades Day capitalized on another Christian Day turnover as linebacker Billy McKinstry intercepted Gus Peavy's pass and returned it to the Crusader's 23.

Then seconds later Danny Scott scored on a 7-yard run and Glades Day converted the two point conversion as Chaney hooked up with Ryan Courson.

Scott would score again in the second quarter on a 4-yard run. Scott finished the game with 85 yards on 10 carries.

Whitehead added his second touchdown of the evening on a three-yard touchdown run with 1:14 remaining. Then Whitehead's PAT was good as Glades Day went into the locker room with a commanding 34-0 lead.

The Gators continued to dominate the Crusaders in the second half.

Whitehead scored on two, 4-yard touchdown runs in the third quarter as the Gators cruised to an easy 48-0 victory.

"My line (Donny Moss, Kirby Norman, Mark Collier, Doug Corbin and Michael Hollon) has helped me a great deal," said Whitehead.

The final numbers tell the story:

• Glades Day had 394 yards in total offense, 289 of those yards came on the ground on 36 carries.

• The Gator's defense held Christian Day to 95 yards in total offense, three first downs and recorded two interceptions by Jackie Garrett and Billy McKinstry.

Glades Day's defense was led by Ryan Courson with 10 tackles and three assists, Shawn Whitlock had nine tackles and two assists and Billy McKinstry had six tackles, one assist and one interception.

Glades Day is now 1-0 in District 7-1A and 2-0 overall. The Crusaders dropped to 0-1 in the district and 0-2 overall.

The Gators will play at Lake Placid Friday night. Christian Day will try to get on the winning track when they host St. Pete Northside Christian Friday. Both games are scheduled to start at 7:30 is what the guys from Glades Day Gators are saying, and after Friday night's game, they are number one between Glades Day and Christian Day cross town rivals.

We're number one!

Glades Central victorious over Bulldogs

Glades Central solidified their No. 1 state ranking in Class 3A by hammering the South Fork Bulldogs.

The numbers amassed by the Raider's offense are eye popping: 327 yards on the ground and 109 yards passing.

Glades Central's offense was led again by senior running back Fred Taylor.

Taylor rushed for 226 yards on 12 carries and two touchdowns.

Glades Central quarterback Jajuan Seider upped his record to an impressive 9-0 as a starter. Seider was 7-for-9 for 92 yards and two touchdown passes, one a 15-yard pass to Demale Stanley in the first quarter and the other a 10-yard pass to Nathaniel Freedman in the second quarter.

Reidel Anthony caught three passes for 35 yards and returned the second-half opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown.

With opposing teams focusing on Taylor this year head coach Rick Casko has emphasized the importance of having a balanced offense.

"If you look back at the programs I have been involved in we never focused on one or two people, everybody is involved," said Casko. "We have a great feeder system and have over 80 kids in our JV system. I've been here three years and we are finally getting the results of our great young program. The kids believe in everything we are doing and it's working."

Glades Central's defense was as dominating as their offensive counterparts.

The Raiders held the Bulldogs to 72 yards in total offense and sacked Bulldogs quarterback Terry Powell five times. The Bulldogs gained eight first downs, but four of those came as a result of penalties.

"We have a young defense and they are getting better every game," said Casko. "We need to improve each week. If we can keep teams under 100 yards we are going to win a lot of ball games. We are really proud of our defense flying to the ball, they make things happen."

The Raiders will host 1-1 Lake Worth Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

Pahokee J.V. Volleyball wins first game

The Pahokee varsity volleyball team lost to Suncoast 14-16, 15-8 and 5-15, Tuesday, September 7. Jacaranda Banks had 12 service points for the Blue Devils.

But the Junior Varsity squad was victorious. Pahokee defeated Suncoast 15-13 and 15-8 to record their first win in three years.

"The girls played hard and really kept their composure,"

Junior Varsity head coach Lidia Caso said.

The JV and Varsity teams will host Labelle High School this Friday. The JV game will begin at 5:30 p.m. followed by the Varsity game at 6:30 p.m.

Fred Taylor is G.C.'s top performer

Fred Taylor is a name already familiar to area athletic fans.

Taylor anchored Glades Central's 4*100 meter relay team that won the Class 2A state championship in the fall.

But Taylor is best known for his exploits on the football field.

Before the football season started, Taylor received over 700 letters of interest and considered by many experts as one of the best running backs in the state.

He rushed for 112 in the Raider's preseason game against Jupiter.

In addition, Taylor has rushed for 140 yards against Cardinal Newman and 226 yards against South Fork this past weekend.

"Fred Taylor is everything they say he is," said South Fork head coach Paul Krasula after Taylor led his team to a 40-0 victory over South Fork.

Patrick Whitehead..Glades Day's top performer

By Paula Burkett

Patrick Whitehead is Glades Day's leading rusher. Patrick started his pre-season off with 87 yards on 11 carries and scored two touchdowns against arch rival Moore Haven.

Whitehead is 6'2 225 pound junior. Patrick runs the 40 in 4.5.

He rushed for 138 yards on 24 carries, scoring 3 touchdowns against John Carroll, Sat. Sept. 4, and rushed for 179 yards on 14 carries and scored 4 touchdowns against the Christian Day Crusaders last Friday night at Gator field.

Patrick's goal for this year is to gain at least 1400 yards to match Miles Griffith's record last year at Glades Day, and win the State Championship this year with his teammates.

Patrick credits the offensive line's blocking ability for allowing him to rush for as many yards possible. "He owed it all to his offensive line," said Whitehead in an interview with WSWN after the John Carroll game.

Whitehead said next week's game against Lake Placid would be tough, but he was confident that they would come out victorious. "We never underestimate our opponent, we take it one game at a time, we run hard, hit hard, score as many points as possible."

LOW BACK PAIN

If back pains are a way of life for you, the reasons can be varied and complex. Some may be pathological, but very often the cause is muscles which are either over or under-exercised which are producing spinal distortion. Vertebrae slip into abnormal positions, resulting in "pinched" and irritated nerves, which cause pain and even loss of function of the affected body part. Poor posture, or even emotional tension, can be the root cause.
